

For those who wish to use the illustrations, etc. posted on this site

The copyrights of individual information (text, photos, illustrations, etc.) posted on this site are owned by the Tokyo Metropolitan Government or a third party. In addition, the Tokyo Metropolitan Government or a third party owns the copyright of the entire Tokyo OSEKKAI Plan website as an edited work, and both are protected by copyright law. Reproduction or diversion without permission is prohibited except in cases permitted by copyright law, such as "reproduction for personal use" and "quotation."

If you want to make secondary use of the posted content, you need to follow the procedures below.

Since the procedure takes about a month, please contact the following contact information well in advance when using it.

<Examples that require procedures>

Beyond the scope of "private use" and "quotation" under copyright law

- When publishing OSEKKAI-KUN's illustrations in public relations magazines, leaflets, etc.
- When modifying and using leaflets posted on this site
- When using a part of the content of this site (illustration, etc.) by modifying it, etc.

【Flow of procedures】

1 Advance consultation

If you wish to use the copyrighted material on this site beyond the scope of "private use" or "quotation" under the Copyright Act, please contact the following contact in advance after the specific use has been decided. We will confirm the details of your use individually.

2 Advance confirmation of a set of application documents

After confirming in "1 Advance consultation", please send a set of draft application documents (application form (draft), manuscript (draft), etc.) by e-mail. Our section will individually check the contents of the application at the draft stage.

3 Examination of formal application documents

After checking in "2 Advance confirmation of a set of application documents", affix the seal of the representative on the application form and mail the set of application documents. It takes about one month from the time the formal application documents are received to our department until the permission to use the copyrighted work is approved, as the application will go through an examination at the Tokyo Metropolitan Government Office.

4 Sending the approval letter

When the purpose and method of use are deemed appropriate and the examination is completed, an approval letter will be issued in the name of the Governor of Tokyo.

Please use the copyrighted material (printing, publication, etc.) after receiving approval from the Tokyo Metropolitan Government.

【Notes】

- If you wish to use OSEKKAI-KUN's character alone, please fill out the "OSEKKAI-KUN license form", if you wish to use a copyrighted work that includes OSEKKAI-KUN, please use the "License Application Form".
- A letter of approval will be issued in the name of the governor of Tokyo, so the applicant on the application form should write the name of the representative (mayor of XX in the case of XX city) and affix the seal of the representative.
- Please specify "Source: Bureau of Social Welfare and Public Health, Tokyo Metropolitan Government, Approval number: ○○福保子家第○○号" for the published work.)
- When the work is completed, please submit one copy of the completed version to this section.
